

KANAIO

Island:	Maui
Size:	876
Elevational Range:	1100 - 2780 feet
Year established:	1991
Date surveyed:	Surveyed in 1993
Description:	Dry forest with communities of native shrublands and groves of native trees. Vegetation communities: 'A'ali'i (Dodonaea) Lowland Shrublands, Lama (Diospyros) Forest, and Wiliwili (Erythrina) Forest. There is also a large stand of Halapepe (Pleomele). Principal non-native pest plants include Lantana (Lantana camara), Koa haole (Leucena leucocephala), Molasses grass (Melinis minutiflora), Bocconia frutescens , and Red top (Rhynchelytrum repens).
Management plan:	Kanaio Natural Area Reserve Biological Inventory and Management Recommendations, March 1993, A.C. Medeiros, L.L. Loope, and C.G. Chimera, for the natural Area Reserves System, State of Hawai'i.